UWC Costa Rica seeks a qualified IB English A and TOK teacher for the 2022 – 2023 school year. Two Year Contract.

UWC Costa Rica is seeking a talented and highly qualified IB English A and TOK teacher who is committed to the intellectual, social and ethical development of students and who is eager to contribute to school life beyond the classroom. UWC Costa Rica values candidates who have experience with students from diverse backgrounds and who are keen to engage in and practice the values of the UWC movement.

The successful applicant should be able to demonstrate the following experience and qualifications:

- A nationally or internationally recognized teaching qualification, teaching English
- Work experience demonstrating an affinity with experiential learning
- A minimum two years’ experience in teaching, preferably in international schools; recent experience with IB is a distinct advantage.
- Competency in Spanish or desire to learn
- The desire to engage with students and generate enthusiasm for learning
- Cross-cultural exposure and understanding
- The ability to interact effectively with senior management, colleagues and students
- Excellent organizational and time management skills
- An eagerness to work actively in all aspects of the UWC Costa Rica curriculum: Academic, Co-Curricular, and Residential Life activities
- The desire to engage and interact with local communities
- Flexibility of approach and a collaborative style are essential

Interested applicants: please send by July 15, 2022 your letter of intent, an up-to-date CV, contact information for 3 current referees and up to 3 open letters of recommendation to Vanessa Céspedes, UWC Costa Rica Human Resources Coordinator, at vanessa.cespedes@uwccostarica.org.

Application deadline is July 15, 2022; however, UWC Costa Rica reserves the right to hire an exemplary candidate before this deadline.
